FUNDING OPPORTUNITY FOR PERFORMING ARTS PROJECTS IN GLENDALE

Glendale, Ariz. — To motivate, increase and support the performing arts in Glendale, the city of Glendale Public Art Program is offering up to $4,000 in support funding for theater, dance, music and interdisciplinary performing art projects and performances.

The program is designed to offer aid for projects open and free to the Glendale community and may be used to support such things as artist fees, project-related expenses for producing performances and workshops and project-related expenses for cultural exchanges that result in performances. All activities must take place within the city limits of Glendale.

Applicants must be located in or co-sponsor with an organization, school or government agency domiciled within Glendale's city limits. Applicant must be a 501(c)3 tax exempt, nonprofit organization. Applicants without this status may apply through a 501(c)3 organization, school or government agency.

Examples of co-sponsoring organizations include a Glendale school or college or a city of Glendale department such as Parks, Recreation and Library Services or the Communications Department.

The application deadline is 5 p.m., Thursday, March 28, 2013. For the complete guidelines and a copy of the application, visit www.glendaleaz.com/arts. For more information, call 623-930-3557 or email Mvahabzadeh@glendaleaz.com.
